

Table of Contents

Foreword

Marion MEYER and Gianfranco ADORNATO	7
--	---

Introduction

0–1 Marion MEYER, Joint Efforts
0–2 Marion MEYER, Open Questions: Old and New Discussions about Chronology and Dates

Challenging Change

1 Judith M. BARRINGER, When Does ‘Classical’ Begin?
2 Gianfranco ADORNATO, Body in Transition

Toward Classical Athens

3 Caterina MADERNA, Toward Athenian Democracy – Young Bodies for a New Form of Government
4 Marion MEYER, The Athenians as Warriors, oikos Members, Worshippers. Defining the Citizen
5 Elena WALTER-KARYDI, The Athenians Discover Themselves as a Community and Enhance their Connection to the Polis and Theseus

Pottery and Technique, Choice and Market

6 Susan I. ROTROFF, New Contextual Evidence for the Introduction of Red-Figure
7 Kathleen M. LYNCH, Attic Fineware at the Turn of the 5 th century: Shapes and Images
8 Christian KUNZE, Red and Black: The Invention of Red-Figure Painting in Late Archaic Athens

Iconography

9 Fernande HÖLSCHER, The krisis of Paris: Changing Aspects of the Goddesses
10 Paolo PERSANO, Theseus, Antiope, and Amazonomachies in Late Archaic Art
11 Anna Maria D’ONOFRIO, The Beautiful Monument: The Aristocracy of Images in Athenian Funerary Sculpture (c. 530–480 BCE)

Public Space and Public Viewing

12 Riccardo DI CESARE, Performing Athens: Urban Spaces and Polis Identity c. 530–470 BCE
13 Hans R. GOETTE, The Development of Greek Theater in Athens c. 530–470 BCE
14 Catherine M. KEESLING, Innovation and Deception: Athenian Commemoration of the Persian Wars

Beyond Athens

15 Giulio AMARA, Monuments to the Tyrannies. The Athenaion of Syracuse Reconsidered:
Sources, Materials, Contexts

16 Raimund WÜNSCHE, Neues zu den Ägineten (with English summary)

Program of the workshop 2019

Index (by Giulio Amara)

FIGURES